

MUSIC AS THERAPY
INTERNATIONAL
PROJECT RWANDA

Nicky Haire 5th July 2014

The land of a thousand hills

Music as Therapy International

Making some of the benefits of music therapy available in places where music therapy is not yet an established form of intervention, or is not widely accessible

Core values

registered charity no 1070760

- Sustainability
- Integrity
- Respect
- Innovation

Two centres

Ngwino Nawe Nkanka

Observing

The collage consists of three photographs. The top photo shows a woman sitting at a table with several children in a classroom. The bottom-left photo shows a woman sitting on the floor with a group of children in a circle. The bottom-right photo shows a woman hugging two children who are wearing blue school uniforms.

Modelling

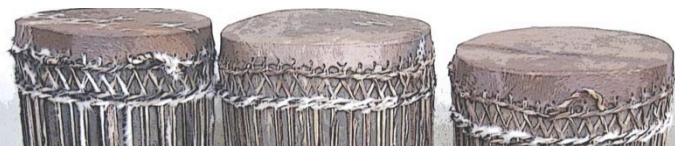

Local Partners leading

Sharing skills

- Experiential: workshops, role-play & modelling
- Demonstrating ideas & thinking
- Offering opportunities to be playful

Building relationships

Sifa 2010

2011 Follow up visit

Interviews

'Music as therapy is help us to know the children, the disabled children... for example the person who is unsociable, who has no place in society, the music as therapy has helped us to help that child to be well in society and to collaborate with the others'

Training DVD

Using Music with People with Disabilities: Sharing Good Practice

- Aims: share good practice, provide a training resource and showcase skills of Local Partners
- Based on resource booklet
- Narrator – Helen Leith

2013 Support visit

DVD launch

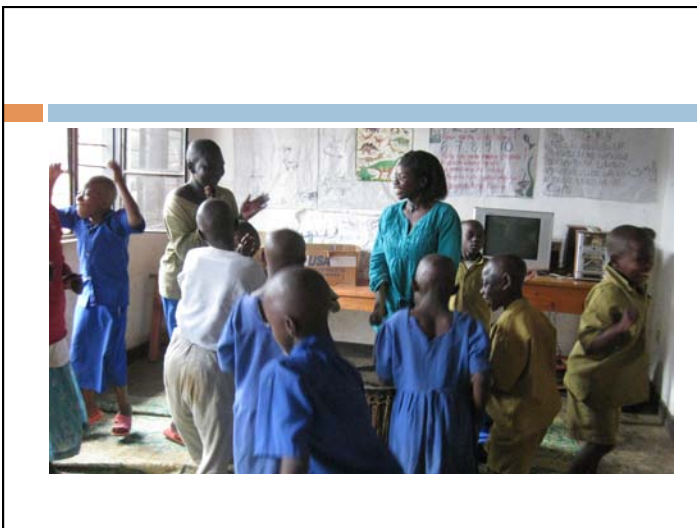

Demonstration music group

Sifa 2013

August 2014

Registered charity no 1070760

- New project in northwest Rwanda
- New team
- Orphanage and community centre

Contact Us:

✉ info@musicasterapy.org

 MasTInternational

Or find out more:

www.musicasterapy.org

  /musicasterapy